Join us to learn all about Gilda's Club Twin Cities. During this meeting you will take a tour of our clubhouse and learn more about Gilda's Club. We will share our philosophy and talk about our five-part program of support, education, healthy lifestyles, social activities, and information and referral.

Find out how you can customize the Gilda's Club program to meet your needs. Everything we offer is provided at no cost and facilitated by mental health professionals and expert instructors.

Gilda's Club is for everyone – men, women, teens, and children living with cancer, including their families and friends. Support is provided for all types of cancers and at any stage of a cancer experience. Attending a new member meeting is your first step to getting involved.

At Gilda's Club Twin Cities you will discover you're not alone.
